Size

Da Vinci Infinity 1519 Table Lamp

Description

The Da Vinci Collection is based on the challenging premise of using modern technology to create an original avant-garde suite of luminaire pieces that accurately portray the spirit of what Leonardo was doing in the late 15th and early 16th centuries.

The Infinity 1519 table lamp resembles a setting sun, borrowing heavily from Renaissance-era design, and is appropriately named for the year Leonardo Da Vinci passed away.

Materials include the use of genuine brass that has been patinaed along with a blackened aluminum core.

Designed by Maurice Dery
